Germans Drop Fresh Paratroops

Enemy Attacks Held In Hottot And Marche Areas

PRESSURE ON BASTOGNE CONTINUES

PARIS, December 25. The Paris Radio stated this morning that fresh paratroops have been dropped by the Germans in the Monschau area. The Brussels Radio reports that paratroops have been dropped near Stavelot.

HEAVY ENEMY ATTACKS SUCCESSFULLY HELD

S. H. A. E. P. PARIS, Dec. 25. Today's Allied communiqué said: "Monschau and Stavelot sectors have been relatively quiet although both Allied and enemy artillery fire have been heavy. No further progress has been made by the enemy in these sectors."

"Germans dropped paratroops in small groups in several places in the area north and north-west of Stavelot. These are being dealt with. Very heavy enemy attacks were held in the area of Hottot and Marche have been successfully held. Enemy forward elements have moved westwards of tactics and troops carrying vehicles have been reported between Marche and Rochefort. There has been only local ground activity in the area of Bastogne but the enemy pressure continues to be strong just south-west of the town. German tanks are in the vicinity of Bastogne, seven miles south-west of Bastogne."

Chaudmont, about six miles south of Bastogne, has been cleared and fighting continues near the town, following enemy counter-attack. Paratroops to the south Martelange on the Bastogne-Arlon road is half cleared of the enemy and we have gains to the vicinity of Bignonville, three miles north-east, and north-west of Diekirch. Our troops have cleared the enemy from Heldenried. A German counter-attack on the night of the 24th and infantry near Trier resulted in heavy fighting. Further progress has been made by our forces, few miles west of Diekirch and there have been no substantial changes in the area south and south-west of Echternach. The fighting is continuing in the vicinity of Conzdorf."

German Communiqué

BERLIN. The German communiqué today reported that German troops launched a concentrated attack against strong American forces encircled in Bastogne.

The communiqué said: The Allied continued strong attacks on a broad front against the southern flank of the German wedge in central Luxembourg. Both sides have thrown fresh troops into the battle."

German Rail And Road Junctions Raided

LONDON, Dec. 25. It is officially announced that more than 400 Liberators and Flying Fortresses to-day attacked railroad bridges and rail and road junctions in Germany.

The American bombers were accompanied by more than 400 fighters and continued the campaign of disrupting communications which supply German counter-offensive. Most of the targets attacked were opposite the battle area.

DAMAGE BUT NO CASUALTIES IN SOUTH ENGLAND

Damage but no casualties have been reported from German air activity directed against Southern England during the night.

U. S. Band Leader Reported Missing

LONDON, Dec. 24—Major Glenn Miller, American band leader, is reported missing according to an announcement to-night. During the BBC "forces' favorites" broadcast, it was learned that rest of Major Miller's band are safe.—Reuter.

'DOCTRINE OF 'ONE PARTY, ONE LEADER, ONE PROGRAMME' IS FAST DYING'

Jayakar On Supremacy Of Human Reason And Disciplined Action For Corporate Benefit

MIRAJ, Dec. 25. "The old era of education has ended. In old days people were educated to help the British administration. Now no helpmates will be created. Now we will take charge of the administration as masters," said Dr. M. R. Jayakar presiding over the Silver Jubilee celebrations of the Willingdon College last night.

"Science will bring about," continued Dr. Jayakar, "this new sort of framing the chief features of which are love of freedom, supremacy of human reason, and co-operation. One man, however great he may be, cannot create a nation. The idea that one great man would bring about the liberation of a people is a delusion. One man cannot do it. Apart from the co-operative action the doctrine of one party, one leader, one programme is fast dying. It is

Two Battles For Vienna

Reds Within 100 Miles Of Austrian Capital

MOSCOW, Dec. 25. Two great battles—both vitally linked with the fate of Vienna—are raging on the southern sectors of the Eastern Front tonight, writes Reuter's special correspondent.

North-west of Budapest and within less than 100 miles of Vienna, Soviet troops are surging up to the Danube river line, the next natural defence barrier before the Austrian border after the German tank armadas. West of Budapest, Soviet tanks and mobile guns are pounding away at the city's defences, repelling flank attacks by German tank armadas. West of Budapest, Soviet tanks and mobile guns are pounding away at the city's defences, repelling flank attacks by German tank armadas.

The great highways leading north and north-west are already under fire from Marshal Tolbukhin's guns. The safety margin for the Germans still held in full engagement is "trickling away" fast as fresh Soviet troops move up in the wake of the three-day offensive which appears to have made a complete encirclement of Budapest in a matter of days, if not of hours.

The German News Agency states: "Russian tank spearheads after engaging German defenders in a fighting south-west of Budapest succeeded in advancing northwards to the area west of the Hungarian capital. Here they were stemmed but the battle is still raging. Between Eipel and Gran German counter-attacks threw the Russians back to the north."

KING ON 'FREEDOM'S HOLY FLAME'

LONDON, Dec. 25. His Majesty the King, in the course of his Christmas speech, said: "We do not know what awaits us when we open the door of 1945. But if we look back to those earlier Christmas days of the war, we surely say that the darkness daily grows less and less."

"Anxiety is giving way to confidence, and let us hope that this Christmas day, God willing, the story of liberation and triumph will be complete."

Throughout the Empire, men and women, boys and girls, through hard work and much self-sacrifice have all helped to bring victory nearer. We have shared any danger and the common effort has bound us together. Yet labour and devotion, patience and tolerance, will still be needed for the experiment of living as nations in harmony."

"The defeat of Germany and Japan is only the first half of the task. The second is to create a world of free men untouched by tyranny. We have great allies in this arduous enterprise of human spirit—our untamed mind and our freedom, holy flame. I believe most surely that we shall reach that goal."

'Offer To Coerce Muslims Will Placate Hindus'

LONDON, Dec. 24. The general situation in India does not appear to be making much progress, writes "The Economist" in this week's commentary. If Mr. Jinnah's refusal to co-operate with the Mediator Sapru Committee is final, and there seems no reason why it should not be so, hopes of an agreement between Indian leaders must be lower than ever, the paper says.

Putting the query, whose should be the move in India, "The Economist" writes: "Tactically it may be the turn of the British to play a card or two and yet it is hardly likely that they did, anything more could be offered than the Cripps proposals of 1942. Apart altogether from the wisdom of initiating far-reaching changes at this crucial stage of the eastern war, the only proposal that would go further to meet the Hindus than the Cripps offer would be the offer to coerce Moslems."

ONLY EXACERBATE INDIAN SUSPICIONS

But merely to repeat the Cripps offer would probably only exacerbate Indian suspicions of sincerity of British motives.

"The resolution passed by the Labour Party Conference against the advice of its Executive shows admirable enthusiasm of Indian independence, but little appreciation of the complex difficulties of achieving genuine freedom for Indians. The resolution called for the immediate opening of negotiations with Indian leaders but it failed to specify on what basis such negotiations should proceed. Unless the supporters believe that Indian leaders would be common ground in the presence of the dominating power and would forget the difference which broke up their own direct discussions, it is hard to see how such a suggestion assists a final and acceptable solution."

"While many will have more emotional sympathy with the Labour Party Conference than with the hard-headed and obscure workings of the Government in India, it may yet be that the policy of the latter will contribute more to the formation of a free and cohesive India."—Reuter.

U. S. TROOPS CLOSING IN ON PALOMPON

Capture Large Number Of Tanks, And Guns In Leyte

PHILIPPINES, Dec. 24. A communiqué from General MacArthur's Headquarters, Philippines, says: "American troops are closing in on Palompon."

Large number of Japanese tanks and guns have been captured on Leyte island and more than 2,400 Japanese dead have been counted. The communiqué also said that the Japanese had advanced on Palompon with bombing and strafing and that Japanese resistance is weak and sporadic. Among Japanese material captured were thousands of tons of ammunition and construction equipment. Mopping up is continuing.

The communiqué also reported air attacks on many targets in the South-West Pacific area including shipping and airfields.—Reuter.

Chinese Capture Two Burman Villages

NO GERMAN GAINS FOR 48 HOURS

S. H. A. E. P. PARIS, Dec. 25. From Reuter's Special Correspondent: "Allied air forces again took air strongly today, smashing German armour and transport. No important German gains were reported in the last 48 hours in the Ardennes onslaught. This does not indicate that German progress has been completely stopped although the slowing up must upset the German time table."

Much of this is due to the American dogged resistance in the Stavelot sector. The Allies are now pushing forward the battle area. The Luftwaffe responded with only 700 sorties.—Reuter.

NO 'SURGICAL OPERATION,' SAYS MAHASABHA

BILASPUR, Dec. 25. Resolutions discussed at forenoon sitting of the Bilaspur Mahasabha were considered by the first business session of the Hindu Mahasabha opened at 3 p.m. to-day. Messages wishing success for the session were received, among others, from Mr. J. B. Kher, Mr. K. M. Gangadhar, Mr. N. C. Kelkar and Shri Parmanand.

A condolence resolution expressing sorrow on the death of Mr. C. Vijayaraghavachari, Sir P. C. Ray, Mr. S. N. Banerjee, Mr. Mahindranath Mitter, Raja of Tirwa, Mr. V. K. Kale of Bilaspur, Rao Sahib Deshmukh of Ellipchur and Major Prannath Narang, Maharaja of Mysore, Mr. N. N. Chakrabarti, Doctor Tejpal Singh and Mr. Jyotirmas Ghose was moved by the chair and was passed.

PRETEXTS OF IMPERIALISM

Mr. Khaparde moved the next resolution which expressed the opinion that the "spirit of compromise of co-operation" demanded from Hindustan and the condition of production of an agreed scheme of reforms which would solve her political problems and present a united front were the pretexts which were being put forward by British politicians to enable Britain to defeat Hindustan's claim to freedom in the interests of British imperialism. The resolution authoritatively declared that, "A major surgical operation like Pakistan" was not in the best interests of Hindustan and the Hindu Mahasabha without prejudice to its demands for complete independence and right to frame its constitution calls upon the

"Fling Away Your Arms"

Archbishop's Christmas Appeal To Greeks

ATHENS, Dec. 25. Archbishop Damaskinos, Metropolitan of Athens, made a Christmas appeal to-day to the Greek people in which he said: "We are in danger of losing all moral gains of four years' struggle. Instead of being all ready together to answer the call of our northern provinces and come forward to guard our uncovered frontiers against deadly scheming and plots of our country's enemies, we become slaves of passion. Fling away your arms. Tear up the funeral shroud of Greece which your bloody conflict is weaving."—Reuter.

SCOBIE'S REPLY NOT DELIVERED YET!

Food Distribution Through Grocers Begins In Athens

LONDON, Dec. 25. Unofficial reports reaching London to-day said: General Scobie's reply to the latest note from ELAS about true terms has not yet been delivered. In Athens, British troops have taken the gas-works.

Distribution will begin in the areas as soon as the cleared. Five days' supplies have been made available to more than a million people in Athens and Piraeus. Greek students have become voluntary dustmen and are manning lorries to collect refuse.—Reuter.

Stiff opposition continues to be met on the north side of the harbour. Recruiting of a National Guard is progressing well. Approximately 10,000 men are being trained. The BRITISH PARATROOPS CLEAR AREA WEST OF ACROPOLIS."

British paratroops yesterday cleared the area west of Acropolis and retook the city's gasworks. ELAS forces still hold the central electric power station.—Reuter.

ATHENS, Dec. 25: (From Reuter's Special Correspondent): "British troops after heavy fighting on Christmas eve, captured the main refrigerating plant in Piraeus and secured the central electric power station. The clearing of new Phaleron district between Phaleron and Piraeus by British forces yesterday strengthened the hold on the Athens-Piraeus road.—Reuter."

"HITLER PASSES MANY SLEEPLESS NIGHTS"

BUT GERMAN NATION IS NOT DOOMED TO EXTINCTION, SAYS GOEBBELS

LONDON, Dec. 24. Dr. Goebbels speaking to German people over the entire German radio network to-night said, "We have lived through a year which has had no equal in German history. Never before have our people been called upon to endure so much and to show such great heroism. At times we have felt that the burden would be beyond our strength. Even that is understandable."

If I can this evening express my unshakable faith in a brighter future for our people, it is because I know that the present and future development of the war will justify and be a good consolation for all the suffering of the past."

In the past few months we have several times been very nearly defeated. But we were not dismayed. Had we admitted our defeat, as other Nations are making a remarkable progress. But instead we surmounted all perils victoriously. Our national strength in resistance and attack has just now again assumed proportions and the most envious admiration. What better proof need we have that the German Nation is not doomed to extinction?"

Nobody can expect, apart from the details already announced in German "communiqués", that anything further will be revealed as to the preparation and objectives of this offensive. We must await a more opportune moment."

HITLER'S SLEEPLESS NIGHTS

Goebbels stating that he had recently seen Hitler, added, "Hitler's feelings and musings go out by day and during many sleepless nights to the German people. I never saw the Fuehrer so full of plans and visions of the future as during the last week before our Western Offensive. When the Allies tried as so often as in the past to drive a wedge between him and his people, his irrevocable resolve never to bend his knee to his enemies but to exploit every opportunity to deal them blows"—Reuter.

POPE CRITICISES DEMOCRACY

"Liberty Becomes Tyranny, Equality Degrades Into Mechanical Levelling"

The following is amplification of the Pope's broadcast sent earlier. The Pope said: "It is a strange contrast of the war that while the bitterness of fighting tends to reach the climax, plans of lasting peace are making remarkable progress. The most important point is that in the sinister light of the war, people have adopted a new attitude towards those who would exploit the will. Inspired by bitter experience they oppose monopolies of dictatorial power. They wish for a government more commensurate with dignity and freedom of citizens. It is surprising that the democratic tendency should carry away peoples."

TOY FOR EXPLOITATION

Pointing out that although the individual is conscious of his responsibilities and convictions, the mass on the other hand awaits stimulus from outside and is an easy prey for anyone wanting to exploit it, the Pope said: "In a real democracy everyone has a right to work honourably and mould his personal life in place and under conditions in which Providence has placed him. What, do we see in a democratic state left to the will of the mass? Liberty becomes presumptuous tyranny. Equality degenerates into mechanical levelling. Democracy, Monarchy or Republic must like any other form of government be invested with the power to command with real and evident authority."

In order to arouse respect and confidence every Legislative Body must consist of persons of outstanding spiritual standards and firm character who have regarded themselves representatives of the entire national community and not spokesmen of particular interests. True needs of goals of the common welfare were often sacrificed."

In any future world settlement an organisation must exist for the maintenance of peace—and organisation invested by common consent with supreme authority with duty, among others, of sufficing at the origin all threats of aggression."

The Pope said no one thought of excusing those who exploited the war situation in order to commit crimes against common laws. But it is just as wrong to judge and punish not simply individuals but whole communities together.—Reuter

Move For Formation Of Ministry In Madras

MADRAS, Dec. 25: Mr. J. Subramaniam Pillai, convenor of the forthcoming conference of Congress Harijan members of Madras Legislature this week to explore the possibility of formation of a ministry on the basis of a statement of the step proposed to be taken by them.

He recalls that Congress Harijan members have been given freedom of opinion and action by the Tamil Nadu Congress Committee with the approval of Mahatma Gandhi especially in matters affecting the Harijan community where they differ from the policy adopted by the party. In view of the concessions given to them, he says, the Depressed Class M.L.A.s need not resign their membership of the Assembly if they desire to co-operate with others to form a coalition ministry in the province to help the community and the Government.—A. Bombay's Splendid Response To Bengal's Appeal For Relief

Seth Haridas Madhavdas On Collections And Disbursements

"The whole of India was stirred by the misery that gripped Bengal and all her sister Provinces did their best to render utmost help. But it is a pity that despite of all the help that could be rendered the famine has devastated the fairer Province of India," observed Seth Haridas Madhavdas, President, Bengal Relief Fund, Bombay Committee when addressing the final general meeting held on Dec. 15.

Seth Haridas declared in the course of his speech that he was proud that Bombay splendidly responded to such a deserving cause by collecting over Rs. 5 lakhs. Seth Haridas also accounted for the disbursements from the collection of Rs. 6,69,274 15 7 by the Bombay Committee, which included cash remittance of over Rs. 5 lakhs, food-grains, clothes, milk powder, etc. worth of Rs. 1,40,000, given to Dr. R. N. Cooper, President, Bengal Relief Committee, for relief work in Bengal Rs. 5,000, postage, printing, etc., Rs. 347 and cash balance of Rs. 3,274 15 7 with Dena Bank awaiting remittance after meeting sundry expenses.

Proceeding Seth Haridas Madhavdas said:

The total amount collected by our Committee Rs. 6,69,274 15 7. This sum has been disbursed in the following manner:

Amount by way of cash remitted to Bengal Relief Committee, Calcutta Rs. 5,20,567 12 0

By way of food-grains, clothes, milk powder, etc. Rs. 1,40,437 3 9

Amount given to Dr. R. N. Cooper, President, Bengal Medical Relief Committee for relief work in Bengal Rs. 5,000 0 0

Printing, postage, bank charges, etc. Rs. 347 3 9

Cash on hand (with the Dena Bank) Rs. 3,274 15 7

Total Rs. 6,69,274 15 7

You will thus observe that there is a small balance on our hand and we propose to send this to the Bengal Relief Committee after meeting small expenses of postage, etc.

BOMBAY TOOK LEAD

TO HELP BENGAL

You will be glad to know that the President, Sir Sadras Goenka, Dr. Shyamaprasad Mookerjee, Vice-President of the Bengal Relief Committee, Calcutta, have sent me the following message on the occasion of this general meeting which I read out for your information.

"We understand you will shortly be dissolving your Committee having completed the distribution of the funds raised by you. We take this opportunity once again to convey to you and to your Committee our deepest gratitude for all that you have done for alleviating distress in Bengal due to famine conditions. We have no desire to make invidious distinction between one province and another. But the fact remains undisputed that last year Bombay took the lead to help Bengal in her distress. The Bengal Relief Committee does not claim to have served all who are in need of assistance; indeed it was hardly possible for any non-official organisation to do so. But the Committee did not spare itself to serve all sections of the people to the best of its ability. Whatever it could do was due to the spontaneous help received from donors throughout India and even outside the country. Foremost amongst the donors must remain your Committee to whom we once again convey Bengal's deep gratitude."

PLEA FOR RETURN OF CONGRESS HOUSE

MADRAS, Dec. 25.

It is understood that Janab V. M. Obaidullah Sahib, President of the Tamil Nad Provincial Congress Committee, has requested the Government of Madras to hand over the Congress House to the Committee. It will be recalled that the Congress House was taken possession of and sealed by the Government in 1942. The Andhra Provincial Congressmen's Assembly will meet at Nellore on January 6.

Added there was, Miss Maniben.

Thus, there was, Miss Maniben. Added the Tata-Birla Plan which the capitalists had been trying to sell under a false label and with a lot of deceptive fanfare, with talks of raising the people's standard of living and glorification of the nation. The People's Plan, on the other hand, had embodied a plan of common interest to the entire Indian society. True Indian people had to choose the Tata-Birla Plan or the democratic way of life or the authoritarian way of life, two lines of development, towards socialism or towards Fascism. There could not be, she said, any doubt about the choice the people would make. But the freedom and opportunity of making a choice were being denied to the people. The Capitalist plan was being thrust upon the people without their consent. The real leaders of Indian industry and finance who had already had a very large measure of political power were still hankering after more power. If they succeeded the economic and political life of India would be moulded on the Fascist model.

POSTAL STAFF GRIEVANCES

G. S. Motilal's Address At Annual Session Of A-I. Conference

Presiding over the annual session of the All-India Postal and R.M.S. Conference held at Wagle Hall, Kandewadi, on Monday evening, Hon. Raja Bahadur Govindlal Shival Motilal, Member, Council of State, advised the delegates present to urge upon the Government to appoint a committee consisting of officials and non-officials to inquire into the grievances of the All-India Postal and R. M. S. staff and to make suitable recommendations for their relief. He suggested that the scope of the enquiry should not be confined to a particular locality but should cover the whole of India.

The Raja Bahadur further warned his audience not to take any drastic step until all the channels of redress of their grievances were exhausted. More than 500 delegates from all parts of the country were present at the Conference.

In the course of his address the Raja Bahadur outlined the grievances of the postal employees which included inadequate pay-scales, insufficient dearness allowance, undue and illiberal restrictions on the grant of leave under the revised rules, the defective pension system and the absence of regular holidays. Referring to the employees drawing a meagre salary of Rs. 40 the speaker simply wondered how persons coming under such a category subsisted at all.

Welcoming the delegates Mr. M. N. Talpade, Chairman of the Reception Committee said that the impression that men working under the Essential Services Ordinance could not ventilate their grievances was wrong. They had been loyal during the most trying time of 1942. He exhorted them to strive for the replacement of old scales of pay. If they did not, he was afraid, that during the years of post-war depression the Government would again try to exploit them.

WHAT CHARKHA IMPLIES

Mashruwalla Opens Village Industries Exhibition At Khar

(From Our Correspondent.)
VILE PARLE, Dec. 25.
Under the auspices of local Seva Dal Committee a very well organized Village Industries Exhibition was declared open by Smt. K. G. Mashruwalla, on Sunday morning, at Laxminagar Hall, Khar. The exhibition was attended by a large number of Suburban residents, when Smt. K. G. Kher performed the Flag Salutation Ceremony at 9 a. m. Smt. Mashruwalla, declaring the exhibition open to the public, emphasised the need of encouraging village industries by the residents of cities and towns. The aim of Gandhiji's village uplift programme he said was to raise the purchasing power of the masses—not to multiply the non-existent per capita income which really meant stretching the fortunes of a few capitalists. Referring to Lord Wavell's plea against the spinning wheel Mr. Mashruwalla said the "charkha" did not imply any bias for the old-fashioned economy and industry or any hostility towards industrialisation, provided that the larger aim of economic, unemployment and assuring an even distribution of wealth was not lost sight of. "Charkha" did not mean denying the scientific progress of all the centuries. As a matter of fact the Research Department of the A. I. S. A. was continuously striving for improvements in the design of the charkha to accelerate the production of khadi. The wheel stood for the resurrection for every village the unit of Swaraj for the prevention of exploitation of the masses, and for the equitable distribution of wealth in the country. The villager should be made to feel that he was the master of his own destiny, and not the bureaucracy—white or brown—from above. If more than fair prices were being charged in the cities for the products of village industries and handicrafts, it was a double treachery against the village artisans.

The exhibition is to remain open to the public daily from 9 a. m. to 12 p. m. and from 4 p. m. to 6 p. m. till 31st inst.

THE LAND IN PLANNED INDIA

To make every acre yield bigger and better crops will be the first and the continuing problem for the bulk of India's population.

There are still fields which are ploughed with fire-hardened wood. Sickles of soft, primitive iron are still used for harvesting. Water-lifting gear, country-mills and transport in thousands of villages still waste man-power and bullock-power by using wood for axles and joints.

Steel will improve the primitive tools and machinery of the cultivator, and it can give him new implements designed for his job. Such land and crops as will stand tractor-ploughing can make most use of steel. Chemical fertilisers will come from steel-built plants to help the land itself. Granaries may be built of steel or of concrete reinforced with steel. Irrigation works must use steel for much of their structural work and for their controlling equipment.

Without steel, the task of supplying India's growing population with its bare needs might well prove impossible.

Hungary Forms Provisional National Govt.

Mobilisation Of Resources For War Against Germans

LONDON, Dec. 24. The Moscow Radio announced tonight (Sunday) that a provisional Hungarian Government has been formed with Colonel General Bela Miklos as Prime Minister.

Colonel General Bela Miklos is the Prime Minister with Dr. János Gyöngyösi, Foreign Minister and Dr. Ferenc Eredeti, Minister of the Interior.

The Provisional Government after solemnly swearing an oath of office issued an appeal, the radio said which denounces Szalasi Government as "usurpers" and urging a vital necessity of a firm government to lead the country "out of the catastrophe resulting from an alliance with Germany" declares that the Provisional Government "once and for all break with German aggression."

The appeal also announced the intention to endeavour speedily to conclude an armistice with the Soviet Union and other countries new with Hungary and compensate for "the material damage caused by Hungary in the way."

A close collaboration with democratic countries including the United States and Great Britain and sincere friendship with the Soviet Union is the aim, said the appeal.

The appeal summarised the aims of the Provisional Government which Included: Mobilisation of all Hungary's forces and resources against the Germans, repudiation of all "anti-national laws" guaranteeing of democratic rights and liberties, disbanding of Arrowcross and similar organisations, punishment of traitors and reintroduction of protection of labour law abolished during the war—last as part of general programme to foster labour legislation.

Reuter adds: Col. Gen. Bela Miklos de Dalmek was Commander of Royal Hungarian First Home Army when France Szalasi took over the Government after deposition of Admiral Horthy. Col. Gen. Miklos was dismissed from his post and a day later the German radio announced that he had gone over to the Russians.

CONGRESS LEADERS

Will Governors Order Release On Their Own Initiative?

(From Our Correspondent.)
PATNA, Dec. 24: It is reported that the Central Government have conceded to Provincial Governments the discretion in the matter of release of the members of the Congress Working Committee. It is stated that New Delhi has intimated Patna this decision and authorised the release of Dr. Rajendra Prasad, if Patna so desires on its own responsibility.

From the Bihar Government's reaction to New Delhi's latest offer political Pandits are of the view that the detention orders served on the members of the Congress High Command may not be extended and that they may be set free individually by the provincial Governments concerned. This latest move seems to be in deference to the British Labour Party's open vote and the American demand.

It is rumoured, however, that the Bihar Government have regretfully declined to avail themselves of the opportunity to release Dr. Rajendra Prasad before the expiry of January next when his detention order expires. Various reasons are alleged for this action the prominent being the likely reaction of the release of Dr. Rajendra Prasad on the next Savings drive which starts shortly.

Since the Home Member's statement in last Assembly session that the Congress High Command members were detained by provincial Governments, much controversy is raging in the Press, as to whose prisoners they actually are. It is being recalled that the Working Committee members along with Mahatma Gandhi were arrested on Delhi orders. Mahatma Gandhi, Mrs. Naidu, and Dr. Syed Mahmud were released also on orders from New Delhi. But in Provincial Assemblies statements were made throwing responsibility of detention on New Delhi. The Bihar Governor is also reported to have stated at the Muzaffarpur Press conference that Dr. Rajendra Prasad was New Delhi's concern.

EPIDEMICS' TOLL

About five lakhs are unofficially stated to have fallen casualties to epidemics in North Bihar alone. The epidemic has become endemic now and it is still not too late to save North Bihar if Government could release Dr. Rajendra Prasad immediately.

Bengal Under Brahminical Oppression

"Country May Turn Into Morass Of Jungle If Not Saved By Proper Planning"

CAWNPORE, Dec. 24. Prof. Radhakamal Mukherjee of Lucknow University presiding over the Bengal Literary Conference here said that Bengal to-day needed her best hands to tackle her extremely difficult and urgent problems of social and economic planning. The social structure of Bengal lost much of its flexibility due to medieval Brahminical revival and oppression of the other castes.

He thought that no one class, community or caste could be without the other.

A radical scheme of social and economic planning must be conceived. River control and management, restoration of dead rivers through flowing into them active streams, irrigation and hydroelectric works were unprevent Western and Central Bengal from turning into morass and jungles.

Industrialisation must also be planned especially with the aid of hydroelectric power in both Northern and Western Bengal and this would have to be aided by the readjustment of the boundaries of Bengal through the recovery of the Bengali speaking areas of Mangum, Singhbhum and Santal Parganas.—A. In the course of a message published in its first issue, Mr. Jinnah says:

"Muslim India is fully alive to the necessity of having a strong and powerful press of its own. I wish the daily 'Manushoor' a bright future and I hope that it will soon find its place among the leading dailies of this country."—A. P.

U. P. Journalists View A. I. N. E. C. Recommendations As Unsatisfactory And Disappointing

ALLAHABAD, Dec. 24. A meeting of the Standing Committee of the U. P. Press Conference held in the "Leader" building under the presidency of Mr. K. Rama Rao, Working President, decided to hold the second session of the U. P. Press Conference at Allahabad on January 20 and 21.

The Committee decided to revise the constitution of the Conference and invited suggestions from the members.

The Committee authorised the Working President and the Joint Secretaries to prepare a report on the present condition of the press in the U. P. with special reference to the various resolutions adopted at the last conference.

The Committee expressed the view that it could agree neither with the recommendations of the Sub-Committee of the A. I. N. E. C. on the new scheme regarding the salary, leave, Provident Fund, etc., of the working journalists nor with the action of the A. I. N. E. C. Standing Committee in adopting them.

In the considered view of the Committee the recommendations referred to are "inadequate, unsatisfactory and disappointing and the forthcoming session of the A. I. N. E. C. to be held in January at Calcutta should adopt them if at all only after making drastic and far reaching changes."—A. P.

NEWSPRINT CONTROL

The following notes are published for the information of firms and individuals, who have been given quota of newsprint for purposes other than that of printing a newspaper as defined in the Newspaper Control Order, 1944:—

The Government of India assumed powers over the sales, distribution and use of newsprint in 1941. The Newsprint Control Order, 1941, was republished in the "Bombay Government Gazette", Part IV-C, dated the 3rd July, 1941. Subsequent amendments issued by the Government of India up to 16th September, 1944, have been also republished in the "Bombay Government Gazette", Part IV-C, dated 24-7-41, 20-8-41, 11-9-41, 31-10-41, 8-1-42, 15-1-42, 19-3-42, 22-4-42, 29-4-42, 6-5-42, 18-11-42, 9-12-42 and 9-11-44.

The Order defines the fibre content and weight of newsprint. The sale of newsprint is restricted to permit holders, but reel ends and clippings may be sold or used under an Open General Permit which is issued to Newspaper Proprietors only.

The purchase or acquisition of newsprint is prohibited except under a permit issued by the Government of India. Newsprint must not be used for any other purpose than that mentioned in the permit.

Returns of newsprint purchased or otherwise acquired, sold, stored or distributed, are to be submitted to the Government of India and to the Newsprint Controller. Copies of the Order and the Amendments are available for sale at the Government Book Depot, Charni Road Gardens, Bombay 4. (1528)

ASCU WOOD PRESERVATIVE WORLD'S NO. 1

ASCU has been thoroughly investigated by 'ad hoc' committee appointed by the Indian Railway Board (presided by Sir C. V. Raman, F.R.S.N.L.) and several research bodies in India, and for over ten years by the world-famous BELL TELEPHONE LABORATORIES of the U.S.A. The verdict has been unanimous. ASCU has been found to be World's No. 1 wood preservative. Any Indian jungle wood treated with ASCU can easily outlast the most durable of Indian woods, like Teak. Bamboo mats treated with ASCU have lasted for more than ten years. Several lakhs of bamboos are being treated with ASCU for the Defence Department. In Post-War reconstruction, ASCU treated wood and timber will play a large part in electrical and telephone schemes, railway extension schemes, factory building and bridge construction and in all other forms of structural construction.

ASCU is a product of research and was invented at a Government of India Research Institute. In ten years, it has marched forward and is now accepted even in America, to be the World's No. 1 wood preservative. As long as five years ago, its patent rights for the U.S.A. and Canada were purchased outright for over two lakhs of rupees by the American Bell Telephone and Telephone Company which controls 70% of the telephones of the world.

ASCU obviously holds the key to economical and efficient wood preservation in India, and steps are being taken to install over a hundred ASCU wood preservation plants at different points in India. A new organisation will be springing up during the next few weeks for rendering efficient service in the line of supplying pressure treated building timber for rafters, reapers, door and window frames, bamboos, fence posts, etc., at practically all points in India.

IT WON'T BE LONG NOW BEFORE THE WEAPONS OF WAR ARE REPLACED BY THE IMPLEMENTS OF PEACE.

HOW TRACTORS CAN HELP THE FARMER

If you own or control 200 acres or more, Tractor farming becomes a practical proposition for you. Tractors make it easy to bring more land under the plough. The clearing of jungle land or weed infested land is done efficiently and quickly with Tractors. They are also useful in soil conservation work such as bunding and ditching. Tractors and tractor drawn implements are designed for every farming operation. Their greatest advantage lies in the speed in which many acres a day can be ploughed, sowed or harvested. They make the farmer independent of labour or draught bullock shortages during the critical seasons of the year. Tractors gather your whole harvest in time. In addition, Tractors represent a source of stationary driving power for pumping, threshing, milling, etc. I.H.C. Diesel Tractors run on Diesel oil which is readily obtainable for food growers.

Volkart Brothers supply and service International Harvester Co's (I.H.C.) Tractors and agricultural implements which are famous for their quality, sturdiness and universal usefulness. If you think of investing in tractor farming write NOW stating your full name and address, the size of your estate, the crops grown and soil conditions.
